This too has been the case at every step and decisive development of our national career. And yet we have gone on together, through peace and through war—one in name and one in heart. Nor does it come of the fact that that there have been those in the South, or wherever slavery existed, who believed that it was a good thing—a beneficent institution—or that it was the best relation in which the two races, when thrown inextricably together, could exist for the time, or that it ought to be carefully guarded and perpetuated for any reasons. Thus, star by star declines from that grand old hanner which Washington gave to the breeze, and that hath ever since floated over sea and land, over battle-field, and bloody deck, and peaceful home, the glory and the joy of millions of happy people. Do Christian men and patriotic men approve this course and drift of things? And if not, are they willing to keep silence, and allow it to go on, by their implied acquiescence, or for the want of doing what they may to arrest it? This question rises above all questions of mere political parties. It overmanters all considerations of personal ease, and adherance to chosen peaceful pursuits, or sentiments of modesty, personal or prefessional, which often of modesty, personal or professional, which often make silent the wisest and most potent voices, while idle chatterers and blatant demagogues rule in the empire of public speech. A Financial View of Secession. her rope. She has carried out her threat Lincoln thus addressed Gen. Clinton: and seceded. She has set up housekeeping To his Excellency, Sir Henry Clinton: a constitution for the government of the States which she proposes to "drag" after the militia and citizens, I then conceived her, but she cannot devise ways and means the militia and citizens, I then conceived with; on the 17th of this month eight States will be after be done by our fellows the contrary we believe that This will last her about a month, when she will either have to break or force another loan. Hence her great baste to "drag" Kentucky and other border slave States into the secession movement. She wants their money for the support of her aristocratic snobs in office.

We will suppose, for the sake of argument. that Kentucky has "submissionists" enough within her limits to submit to being "dragged" at the tail of South Carolina. How would the change affect our prosperity financially? The cost of supporting an army at all adequate for our defense, and of keeping up the civil list, would be enormous. It is safe to say, that a poll tax of at least forty dollars per annum would be levied upor every white male citizen of legal age, and this in addition to other necessary and ordipary taxes upon property. The Constitution of the Southern Confederacy will require a property qualification for voters, similar to the one South Carolina has always had. To qualify one for holding office, he must be rich, and the higher the office, the richer he must be. The poor man will be disqualified, not only for holding office, but he will not be permitted the poor privilege of voting for his rich neighbor, unless he (the poor man) has property enough to come up to the Soutl Carolina idea of what constitutes a freeman Although the South Carolina snobs regard poverty as a crime, they graciously allow and compele poor man to pay his head tax be he never so poor. The condition of poor men in the Southern Confederacy will be like that of the serfs in Russia, and worse than that of the slaves in this: while the slave will have fully as many political privileger as the poor man, he will be supported by his master, and exempt from paying taxes What a paradise for honest poverty!

In connection with this view of the matter we desire the reader to call to mind every disunionist within his knowledge, and sec what proportion of the number could vote under the South Carolina Constitution, or under a Constitution such as will be adopted for the Government of the new Confederacy. we always had, and ever shall retain, the most if there ever is one. Is it not an admitted profound veneration, and substituting in its stead fact that the most of the men who are making all this fuss about secession, are men of little or no projecty? How many of all the men in Kentucky who desire to follow in the wake of South Carolina, because the South loses negroes, have negroes themselves to lose? We don't blame them for that, bu we do blame them for getting so excited over other people's business. Because the peo ple of the South lose many slaves per an num through the efforts of northern fanatics, southern fanatics would have the slave holder relinquish what protection he now has to his property, and rush headlong into a state of anarchy. Grant that we have not adequate protection to slave property now No man has demonstrated, and no man car demonstrate, that we should have any protection at all one moment after the breaking up of this Union.

CAUTION TO DEBTORS.

PROM information received since the death of my late partner, C. G. Graham, I believe here are numerous outstanding debts due to the late firm, for which notes were given payable to "C. G. Graham" (which was the style of the firm), but which have not come into my possession as surviving partner. I therefore warn all persons thus indebted not to make payment to any person ther than myself or my authorized agent. If hey do, they will act in their wrong, and may be ompelled to pay again to the surviving partner, who alone is authorized to collect said debts. Frankfort, jan2 w&twtf. THO. S. PAGE.

THE AMALGAMATION OF LANGUAGES .- There is growing tendency in this age to appropriate the most expressive words of other languages, and after a while to incorporate them into our own; thus the word Cephalic, which is from the Greek signifying "for the head," is now becoming pop-ularized in connection with Mr. Spalding's great Headache remedy, but it will soon be used in a more general way, and the word Cephalic will become as common as Electrotype and many others, whose distinction as foreign words has been worn away by common usage, until they seem "native and to the manor born."

Headache is the favorite sign by which na ture makes known any deviation whatever from natural state of the brain, and viewed in this light it may be looked on as a safeguard, intended to give notice of disease which might otherwise es-cape attention till too late to be remedied; and it cape attention till too late to be remedied; and its indications should never be neglected. Headaches may be classified under two names, viz: Symptomatic and Idiopathic. Symptomatic Headache is exceedingly common, and is the precursor of a great variety of diseases, among which are Apoplexy, Gout, Rheumatism, and all febrile diseases. In its nervous form it is sympathetic of disease of the stomach constituting sick headache, of hepatic disease constituting bilious headache, of worms, constipation and other disorders of the bowels, as well as renal and uterine affections. Diseases of the heart are very frequently attended with Headache; Anamia and plethora are also affections which frequently occasion headache. Idiopathic Headache is also very common, being usually distinguished by the name of nervous headache, sometimes coming on suddenly in a state of apparently THE undersigned beg leave to announce to the citizens of Frankfort and vicinity, that they have established a first class Seminary for young pain is in the front of the head, over one or both ledies, which will be conducted strictly on the eyes, and sometimes provoking young in since the head, over one or both ledies, which will be conducted strictly on the eyes, and sometimes provoking younging; under

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

A compound remedy, in which we have labored to produce the most effectual alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who wifes from Strampage complaints and that one suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found of the following complaints: -

SCROFULA AND SCROFULOUS COMPLAINTS, ELUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AF-FECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEU-BALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYS-PEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR St. Anthony's Fire, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF

THE BLOOD. This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud. Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul cruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it is obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation, of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it, contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or any thing else.

During late years the public have been mis-led by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intend-ed to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on

We think it a most safe and profitable mode of investing money. The profits enure to the benefit of the insured, and have averaged not less than 30 per cent. per annum on the premium paid.

Besides these investments in stock, &c., the law of New York requires as additional security, that $100,000 shall be deposited with the State Competition, to meet any lawful demands which the Competition way fell to pay. Never did we know an instance of disastisfaction by any one who use it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of the highest commendation of its magical effects and medicinal virtues. We speak in this matter "what we do know" after ten years experience and pledge our reputation for the fulfillment of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the Syrup is administered.
